SPECIALTIES FOR EASTER

It's time to plan those specialties for the Easter menu. Of course, you'll want the table to have that hand-box look and that is easy to fix. First, choose your prettiest linens and be sure they are crisp and fresh, ready for use. You may add appropriate decorations for the occasion as you like.

Then, be sure dishes, glassware and silver are sparkling and clean. Use your best even though it's just for the family.

And last, but by no means least, plan tasty food and prepare to serve it in the most attractive fashion. Here are some timely recipes.

HOT CROSS BUNS
Hot cross buns are the order for the day. You may make them on Saturday and reheat them for serving hot at the Easter breakfast.

2 Tbsp. butter
1/2 C. sugar
1 tsp. salt
1 C. scalded milk
1 cake compressed yeast
1/2 C. lukewarm water
1 tsp. cinnamon
3 C. sifted flour
1 egg, well beaten
1/2 C. seeded raisins

Add butter, sugar and salt to scalded milk. Cool un-salted lukewarm. Dissolve yeast cake in lukewarm water. Add dissolved yeast, cinnamon, flour and egg to milk mixture. Fold in raisins. Cover and let rise until double in bulk. Shape dough into 1-inch buns. Place in oiled pan 1 inch apart. Allow to rise until light. Make a deep cross in center of each bun. Brush tops with beaten egg yolk, mixed with 1 tsp. cold water. Bake in modern gas oven at 400° for 20-25 minutes. While still warm, glaze with egg white beaten with powdered sugar.

HAM FOR DINNER
A big baked ham may be just the thing. However, if that is out of line with the budget and the size of the family, a main dish that features a slice of ham may be a fine selection.

TWO-DECKER BAKED HAM
3 C. cooked mashed sweet potatoes
Salt and pepper
1 egg, well beaten
2 slices ham, cut 1/2-inch thick
Season sweet potatoes with salt and pepper. Beat in egg. Spread one slice of ham with sweet potatoes and place remaining slice on top. Bake at 325° for one hour.

LEMON MARSHMALLOW GLAZE
1/2 C. lemon juice
1/2 C. water
1 lb. or 1 pkg. marshmallows
Heat ingredients until marshmallows are thoroughly melted. Boil vigorously for 3 minutes or until mixture is transparent. Pour over ham.

VEAL AND HAM ROLL
2 lbs. veal round steak, cut 1/2-inch thick
1 lb. smoked ham, cut thin
1 lb. sweet potatoes
1 tsp. onion juice
1/2 tsp. salt
1/2 tsp. celery salt
Dash of mace
1 Tbsp. melted butter
1/2 C. chopped pecans
1/2 C. flour
Pound flour into veal steak. Lay sliced ham on the veal, trimming edges if necessary. Mix chopped, cooked potatoes, seasonings, melted butter and nuts. Spread potato mixture on meat. Roll up like jelly roll. Tie or skewer into shape. Place strips of bacon over top of meat. Bake uncovered for 1 1/2 hours at 350°.

SALAD FEATURES
Salads may be decorative additions to the menu and mighty good eating at the same time. We enjoy making molded or frozen salad features for many special menus. There's a big advantage in having this part of the meal all ready for serving. Both of these recipes are very nice.

EASTER SALAD RINGS
1 1/2 C. water
1 1/2 C. applesauce
1 pkg. lime gelatin
Lettuce and other greens
1 C. cottage cheese
Add the water to the applesauce and bring to a boil, stirring occasionally. Remove from the heat, add the gelatin and stir until dissolved. Pour into oiled individual ring molds. Cool and when firm unmold on lettuce or other greens. Pile cottage cheese in center of the rings.

FROZEN FRUIT SALAD
1 Tbsp. unflavored gelatin
1/2 C. cold water
1 No. 1 can fruit cocktail
1/2 C. mayonnaise
1 C. heavy cream
1 cherris bottle maraschino cherries
Soften gelatin in cold water; dissolve over hot water; cool. Add fruit cocktail with its syrup and mayonnaise. Chill. Fold in whipping cream. Pour into refrigerator freezing tray. Dot with cut cherries. Freeze until firm.
